

Athena – Grease Goddess

2019 Nomination Form

Organizers of the Athens Grease Festival are searching for a woman to serve as Athena – Grease Goddess for the Oct. 19, 2019, Athens Grease Festival. This woman will receive a toga, torch and recognition during the festival and lead the opening ceremonies.

Requirements

The mythical Athena was known as a wise Greek goddess who loved and protected the City of Athens, could be a warrior, and had a creative side and interest in the arts, crafts, and agriculture. Likewise, our Athena – Grease Goddess should demonstrate similar qualities through her willingness to give back to the city. She must be a Limestone County resident who works to improve the city. This could be through volunteering with non-profits, with the arts, with youth, on a city board, or through environmental efforts. She can earn extra points for being known as a good cook. If you know of a woman who should serve as our Athena – Grease Goddess, please answer the following questions:

Your contact information

Name:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

The name of the person you are nominating:

Her Address:

Her Email:

Her Phone

Briefly explain why you are nominating her:

What non-profit or city boards does she serve on (list all you know. Use additional sheets if needed).

Other than boards, what other volunteer opportunities does she participate in that benefit Athens?

What other traits would make her a good representative of Athens?

In your opinion, what is her best fried dish? (if she has one):

Please mail this form to Holly Hollman, P.O. Box 1089, Athens, AL 35612. Forms must be received by Aug. 26, 2019, at 4:30 p.m. The festival's major sponsor will choose the winner, who will be announced prior to the festival.